

NOSE WORK MAGIC PRESENTS... STEVE AUSTIN, ELITE DOG TRAINER

K-9 Scent Detection Workshop

Professional canine detection trainer, Steve Austin, is known for his work in biodiversity and conservation protection, truffle hunting, and pest control, as well as canine detection services, including drugs/narcotics, explosives, quarantine, and customs throughout the world. He has trained dogs for use in more than 32 countries and for many international organizations. These organizations include the Tasmania Parks and Wildlife Service, Cheetah Conservation of Namibia, and various U.S. police forces. He is a certifying official for the Californian Narcotic and Explosive Detector Dog Association and judges the International Drug Searching Championship. Besides an impressive resume Steve is an engaging speaker and his workshops are interactive and fun!

Workshop to address creating drive, container drills, & troubleshooting problematic behaviors in experienced teams. Steve will also share his conservation work & training techniques through video.
